Current Comment

By R. H. K.

The opinions (if any) expressed herein, are not necessarily those of The Campbell Press.

The two-hundred and ninth anniversary of the birth of George Washington, which will be celebrated throughout the United States and her possessions on Saturday, finds the nation heeding not the great man's words, "Avoid foreign entanglements." No, indeed. It finds us meddling dangerously in international affairs for the second time in little more than two decades.

Politically and economically, the international scene has changed considerably since Washington uttered those famous words, and it is useless to conjecture his reaction to the world situation were he alive today. But in view of the fact that he was the champion of a people determinedly seeking liberty from an oppressor equally determined to keep them in subjugation, one might hazard the guess that Washington would be in something of a quandry if he were obliged to make a decision involving the nation in 1941.

To me, however, as opposed to the administration and a majority of the elder statesmen, George Washington's words are still golden words. For every time the United States has messed into something that did not concern her, the people as a whole have emerged losers. We have lost men and money, earned the contempt of some, the hatred of others, and the gratitude of a few who did not, after all, pay their bills.

It would be well, on this anniversary of the birth of "The Father of His Country," for our national leaders to consider well the words of Washington before turning irrevocably down the road that will lead us into another and bloodier and costlier war.

And speaking of the 22nd, the weather man seems to be in some doubt as to what he'll have on hand for the occasion. Rain, predicted for Tuesday and Wednesday, did not materialize. The first time he's been wrong since more than a month ago when he made "rain" a permanent forecast. On the whole, I think perhaps we'd better order rain for the celebration; if current prognostications hold up we ought to be due for a beautiful, sunny day.

Airwaves recently have been crowded with reports of the ferocity and general all-around meanness of San Francisco's "dead end kids." A sad commentary on our recreational and out-of-school educational program which in some quarters is very good and which in other quarters is equally bad or non-existent. Campbell, while comparatively free of youthful high-binders, has not gone unscathed, and a good place to start a comprehensive recreational program would be right here. Right?

(As we go to press I see the weather man has made a sucker out of me again. Better use your own judgment on that weather order.)

Minstrel Show Promises Fine Entertainment

With full dress rehearsal scheduled for Friday night, the minstrel show being arranged for the evening entertainment Old Settlers' day is shaping up very well, reports Ethan Lanphear, committeeman in charge for the fire department, which is sponsoring the performance.

Under the skillful hand of B. F. Woods, San Jose, blackface specialist, performers are being welded into a well-knit unit which is bound to please. Featuring end-men, Dave Sanders, Ethan Lanphear, Walter Smily and Herold Morton, with D. H. Cramer as interlocutor, the program will also include vocal solos by Axel Granstrom, now of Los Gatos, and George Lanphear of Saratoga; selections by a medley quartet composed of Junior DeVaughn, H. B. Tallman, Manuel Vierra and Kenneth Leverton. Bennie Scorsur of San Jose State will put on a singing cowboy number, and Fred Faltersack, well-known for his dexterity, will entertain with an exhibition of legerdemain. A male chorus will open and close the show.

Music will be supplied by the San Jose Harmony Six who will also play for the dance immediately following the minstrel. The hop ,too, is under the auspices of the fire department.

Mrs. Guy Farley, Mrs. William Lloyd, Miss E. Parmalee, and the Rev. and Mrs. John Brunswick attended the district meeting in San Francisco, Wednesday, and heard Bishop J. C. Baker who returned on that day from the Orient, speak on conditions in Japan and Korea.

Birthday Program At Women's Club Mon. Afternoon

The Country Woman's club celebrated its 36th birthday on Monday afternoon with a very entertaining program and delightful tea. Mrs. E. I. Price, first president of the group, gave a short anniversary inspirational talk. She said that beside organizing the library, the club was organized out of curiosity to learn and know each other better. "Friendship is life itself."

Mrs. L. B. Peck as guest speaker, spoke upon the topic "The Last Dowager Queen of China." Mrs. Peck briefly highlighted the main spots of the long and eventful life of the Great Queen. She marked the end of the rule of the powerful Manchus. Mrs. Peck told of the complex intrigues and counterplots which existed in the Chinese court at that time.

Mrs. M. A. Ross read an interesting letter written to her by a friend who attended the funeral of the Dowager Queen. She said, "It was the most elaborate funeral I have ever seen."

Also on the program were songs by Mrs. Dorothy Rich, accompanied by Mrs. David Rutherford. Mrs. Rich sang "A Heart is Free," "Out of the Dust," "Will You Remember Me?" and "All for You."

Mrs. Sue Boyce was chairman for the day. On her committee were Mrs. M. A. Ross, Mrs. G. W. Burrow, Miss Lillian Cassidy, Mrs. T. F. Rogers, and Mrs. E. R. Kennedy. Tea was served by the committee.

Mrs. G. E. Jeffers presided at the business meeting in the absence of Mrs. W. R. Morgan, president, who was ill. Mrs. Sue Boyce reported on the book, "Embezzled Heaven." Mrs. Ben Sewell announced that Frank Ingerson of Cathedral Oaks would be speaker at the March 3 meeting. The topic for the day will be "Porcelain, Jewelry, Pottery."

Fremont Wins By A Nose In Hectic Contest

The fighting Bucanneers of Campbell High went to town Friday night at the Fremont gym when the 130 team of Campbell outplayed Fremont, but lost by two points, and the varsity trimmed Fremont by a 39 to 23 score.

After playing an overtime period, the 30's of Fremont seemed to get the breaks and "Buck" Adair sunk the winning bucket to give the Indians the needed two points. Benny Carvelho was high point man for Campbell with twelve points, although he was taken out of the game because of four fouls.

At the half in the varsity game, the Buccanneers were one point ahead and came back in the third quarter to score practically at will. Lobrovich and Miranda were high point men with 14 and 13 points respectively.

Next Friday night at 7:30 in the Campbell gym, Campbell meets Washington in what promises to be one of the most interesting games of the season. Washington has not yet been defeated, while Campbell has lost only one game in the heavyweight division. Local fans will be pulling for an upset in this game tomorrow night.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen Stauffer of Salinas were Sunday guests of her parents Mr. and Mrs. John D. Blaine.

A. P. Lindsay Speaker of the Day Feb. 22

Those attending the grange morning program here Saturday will hear A. P. Lindsay, chief deputy district attorney, speak on the topic, "America, the Land of the Pioneer."

A native of Lassen county, the Old Settlers' day main speaker was educated in San Jose schools. He received his bachelor's degree from the University of California in 1919 after two years in the army had intervened in his studies.

As a post graduate he studied law at California, Harvard and Yale universities.

Other features of the program on which Lindsay appears include 40 minutes of variety entertainment by the Mt. Hamilton Juvenile Grange orchestra, led by Mervyn Keesling. The program will include several selections by the orchestra, a vocal duet by the Dickerman twins, Margaret and Harriet, Mt. Hamilton grange; a tap dance by Marilyn Hamm, accompanied by Mrs. Frank Foster, both of Mt. Hamilton; acrobatic stunts by Miss Hamm; vocal duet by Mr. and Mrs. Oscar De Reschke of Almaden grange; and other vocal numbers.

Campbell Union High School A Cappella choir, directed by C. P. Klassen, will favor with a ten-minute program.

Harry Mitchell of Mt. Hamilton grange will act as master of ceremonies, and the program will be preceded by a parade at 9:15.

Luncheon, as usual ,will be served in the school cafeteria by the grammar school P.-T. A., and the day's activities will be resumed at 1:30 with a Future Farmers of America stock show and an athletic program featuring San Jose State college athletes and a basketball game between Moffett Field Fliers and Campbell Merchants.

The celebration will, as is customary, wind up with evening entertainment which will consist of a minstrel show and dance, both sponsored by the Campbell Fire department.

High P.-T. A. to Meet In Special Business Session

Mrs. F. A. Jacobson, president of the Campbell Union High School P.-T. A., is calling a special business session of the unit for Thursday afternoon, Feb. 27, in the little theater of the school, at 2:30 p. m. All members and interested friends are urged to be present, as the purpose of the meeting is to vote on the report of the committee appointed to investigate the major project of the year, a curtain for the stage of the little theater.

At the same time a meeting of the hospitality committee will be held to complete plans for the Father's Night meeting to be held Wednesday, March 12, at which Paul Hitman, dean of men, San Jose State college, will be the guest speaker.

An afternoon card party is being planned by the group on April 4. Time and place will be announced later.

New Operators At Richfield Station

The Richfield Service station, corner Campbell avenue and Winchester road which has been conducted by several agents is now in charge of Bill Murie of Burbank, San Jose, and Milton K. "Bud" Bachman, who took over last week.

Bud is a well known and popular Campbell youth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Bachman. He is a graduate of Campbell schools and has had three years at San Jose State college.

While in Campbell High he played on the basket ball team and is now one of the Campbell Merchants quint that consistently collect laurels for themselves and the home town.

While primarily a service station, accessories are handled and lubrication work done by the new partners, for whom we bespeak a share of the local business.

Vets Register For Peace Or War Service

The American Legion is acting as registration organization for its members and other World war veterans who wish to sign up, voluntarily, for classification designed to speed up mobilization in time of disaster during either peace- or war-time, according to Milo J. Warner, national commander, who is urging all veterans to register at the nearest Legion post on or before Saturday, Feb. 22.

Registration involves no moral or financial obligation, say Legion officials, the idea being that if the Legion is called upon by the government to supply men in any emergency, they will have a complete list of those willing to serve, and what each man is capable of doing.

Three Campbell Future Farmers traveled to San Luis Obispo last week to purchase pure bred livestock from the California Polytechnic school herd.

With these animals as a nucleus it is hoped to improve much of the stock now owned by the boys, and also to develop a show herd in each of these breeds, in addition to the Hampshire hogs already being shown by members of the Campbell chapter.

Study Groups Met Friday At Luncheon

The study groups of the Campbell high and grammar school P.-T. A.'s were entertained by Mrs. Anthony Jurras at luncheon at her home last Friday. With all his other activities he has found time to develop a fine herd of hogs which will be exhibited at the show Feb. 22.

Footlighters In Enjoyable Meeting 11th

Following a short business meeting presided over by Archie Keesling, president, at the regular session of The Footlighters last Tuesday evening, the members were entertained by a group who presented a short play. Those taking part in the skit were Theodora Herold, Lenore Weaver, Merle Knappen, Betty Sewell, Helen Wrigglesworth and Marion Nelson. Mervyn Nicholls announced the performance and Ellen Lanphear was director and prompter.

Refreshments were served by a committee composed of Helen Wrigglesworth, chairman, Elfrieda Anderson and Lenore Weaver. Music and dancing concluded a most enjoyable evening.

Morgan Presides At Kiwanis Meet

Reports on the progress of plans for Old Settlers' Day were given at the Tuesday meeting of the Kiwanis club, and all details were found practically completed. W. R. Morgan, president of the Chamber of Commerce presided.

Next Tuesday there will be an inter-club ladies' night meeting, Mountain View being the visiting club. W. H. Van Dyke will be chairman and is arranging the program. Dinner hour has been set for 6:30.

There will be on exhibit during the day about 50 head of hogs, 12 head of dairy cattle, and 100 chickens. Also on exhibit will be goats, rabbits, pigeons, guinea hens, and 150 three-weeks-old New Hampshire chicks in a Sunshine brooder.

Livestock and poultry will constitute an all-day exhibit, and is an innovation calculated to create a lot of interest. Prizes and ribbons will be awarded in the high school gymnasium between 1:30 and two o'clock, just preceding the athletic program.

Miss Jessie Lewis who had spent the winter in Arizona with Mr. and Mrs. Porter Davis of Reno, returned home Tuesday afternoon. She reports a very delightful vacation with many sightseeing trips.

Since the publication last week of the Scout awards, it has been called to our attention that Harvey Wood, who was made an Eagle Scout is the only one from Troop 28 to have attained that honor.

As this is "Laymen's Sunday" all the men of the various organizations of the church are asked to attend and hear the subject discussed. Until the youth of tomorrow is trained within the framework of Christian principles we cannot hope to defeat the inroads upon the personality of youth that national socialism in its present form is so successfully doing. Special music by the church choir.

"PYGMALION" AT CURRAN STARTING 24th

Ruth Chatterton, famed stage and motion picture star, is returning to San Francisco after an absence of many years to play the leading role in George Bernard Shaw's brilliant comedy, "Pygmalion," opening at the Curran theater, Monday evening, Feb. 24, for a run of two weeks.

Miss Chatterton will appear as Eliza Doolittle, the charming Cockney flower girl. The plot relates how Eliza is turned into a grand lady by Professor Henry Higgins, who is an expert on phonetics. The professor succeeds so well in teaching Eliza proper speech and deportment that he is able to pass her off as a duchess at a reception in Buckingham Palace. The one hitch in the situation is that the flower girl falls in love with the Professor and complications ensue.

Miss Chatterton's supporting cast is headed by Barry Thomson and Dennis Hoey. Mr. Thomson last appeared in San Francisco with the Lunts in "Idiot's Delight" and "Amphitryon 38."

Miss Edith Hughes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Hughes, is one of several music students at San Jose State college who will present a recital consisting of piano and organ solos Friday evening at 8:15 in the little theater of the college. Miss Margaret Thomas is the instructor in these instruments in the music department.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Herold and family of Esther avenue, spent the week-end in Plymouth, Amador county.

Choir Honored By Special Invitation

That Campbell has one of the best high school a cappella choir units in the state has been demonstrated by an invitation received by C. P. Klassen to have the entire choir participate in a chorus of three hundred voices in the California Western Music Educators conference to be held in San Jose, April 9.

The chorus, to sing as the closing episode of the conference is being made up of the best high school voices in the state. Most schools will be represented by only a few students. The fact that the Campbell high choir has been asked to appear as a unit is a splendid tribute to the work Mr. Klassen has done in developing the vocal talent of the school.

1941 Baseball Prospects Good

Campbell High school will open its 1941 baseball season on Friday, April 4, against Mountain View. Practice will start as soon as the weather permits.

The prospects for this year's team are good as there are about fifteen veterans coming back among forty boys signed up. Coach Steve Casaleggio is going to try to have two teams this year; a sophomore team and a varsity team, if enough equipment can be secured. With the exception of the catcher's spot, practically all positions are held by veterans.

Previously the grammar school field has been used for games but this year the school has a field of its own.

Mrs. Louis Gray was confined to her home last week with a severe cold.

The new officers of the Girls' League were installed at a meeting Feb. 13 in the auditorium. President, Carolyn Burgess; vice president, Lila Mae Baptist; secretary, Joan Kennedy; treasurer, Lorraine Calabray, took the oaths of office. Outgoing officers, Bernice Robbins, Joan Kennedy, Roxana Sidensol, and Molly Cooley gave talks about their duties.

A public speaking contest concerning American citizenship is being sponsored by the California Bankers association among high school students of California. A trip to Honolulu is to be awarded the winner of the final contest which will be held in the Veteran's War Memorial building in San Francisco. The topic, "The Responsibility of American Citizenship," was chosen for the purpose of stimulating a greater appreciation of American citizenship.

At the election held last week, Bob Drennon won the position of president of the Boys' Athletic club over Alfred Martin. Bob Crawley, the only candidate running for the position, received the office of vice-president on a white ballot. Glenn Guttormsen defeated Hugh Nelson to become secretary-treasurer.

Record of New Coach Is Good

The new physical education instructor, track mentor and tennis coach at the high school, Harold W. Drummond, has had a lot of experience in the field of athletics and should go a long way to make Campbell High more successful in the sports field.

Before coming to Campbell High Mr. Drummond was an instructor in tennis, soccer, and football at San Luis Obispo High school and junior college.

While attending the University of Nebraska, he played on the freshman football and track teams. In each of those sports he won a blosk letter. At the Oregon State college he won a football block.

The FARMERS CORNER

by RALPH H. TAYLOR

Executive Secretary Agricultural Council of California

With state revenues soaring to new highs, due to the impact of national defense spending, the California legislature, which has been forced to wrestle with deficit problems for the past decade, now finds itself confronted with the question of what to do about prospective general fund surplus.

To the average farmer or business man, the prospect of a goodly surplus after ten years of red ink would come as welcome relief. Certainly it wouldn't be construed as a problem.

In state government, however, with scores of groups constantly clamoring for special appropriations and special projects, a surplus can be—and often is—more dangerous than a deficit. In fact, a deficit, if it isn't too large, often serves a good purpose in that it puts a damper on extravagant spending. Conversely, the prospect of a surplus is viewed with alarm by conservative lawmakers because it is likely to encourage spendthrift policies and set a spending pace in comparatively good times which the state can't possibly afford to maintain in times of stringency.

The situation which confronts the 1941 legislature is roughly as follows:

While a state deficit still exists, which it is variously estimated will total from $40,000,000 to $47,000,000 at the end of the current biennium on June 30 next, state tax sources—swollen by the tremendous defense spending program of the federal government—will not only wipe out that deficit, but will pile up a surplus by the end of the coming biennium on June 30, 1943.

On the amount of the surplus, Governor Olson and leaders of the legislative economy bloc disagree. But both agree on the fact that there will be a surplus.

There is also disagreement on the subject of what to do about the prospective surplus and it promises to become one of the hottest issues of the second half of the legislative session.

Governor Olson ,in effect, told the legislature in his budget message that he wanted to pay off the state deficit in full and build up a nest egg for a rainy day.

Leaders of the legislative economy bloc, however, have expressed the fear that even an anticipated surplus will be too great a temptation to free-handed spending and extravagant experimentation.

As a consequence, some of the economy-minded legislators contemplate a determined drive to reduce state taxes for the next two years, as a partial offset to the increased federal tax burden taxpayers must bear. Under this program, the deficit would be reduced to a more reasonable amount, perhaps $25,000,000, but that shortage would be maintained as a barrier against excessive spending.

Without attempting to pass on the program proposed, inasmuch as it is still in rough-draft form, certainly the purpose of the plan will be applauded by farm representatives and spokesmen for all other taxpaying groups.

The current era of "prosperity" in state revenues, it should be borne in mind constantly, has been bought, and will continue to be bought as long as it lasts, at terrific cost. The federal tax load to finance the defense program will call for sacrifices on the part of nearly every taxpayer, big or small. And any temporary "prosperity" occasioned by defense spending must be viewed realistically—as both synthetic and very costly. Under the circumstances, state and local tax burdens must be held to an absolute minimum—and a reduction in state taxes, even if only temporary, might save many taxpayers from being plunged into bankruptcy.

Hi Band to Get New Uniforms

Funds for new uniforms for the high school band have been appropriated by the council. There will be over forty uniforms for the band and three majorette outfits.

Credit is due to Toney Keys and her mother who, with the assistance of Lee Gerrans, former commissioner of music, have spent a great deal of time getting data and bids on the uniforms.

The uniforms will consist of blue gaberdine trowsers with red stripes, military style hats, and red gaberdine capes lined with blue satin.

A delay in receiving the uniforms is expected because of a shortage of material due to government demand. However, the students look forward to seeing the band in new uniforms soon.

Miss Mabel C. Knappen spent from Thursday to Monday in San Francisco with her nephew, Kirby Evander and family.

BIG RELIABLE QUALITY-BUILT DEPENDABLE

THIS SPECIAL TRADE-IN OFFER APPLIES ONLY on the purchase of an Automatic Gas Water Heater of 20 gallon capacity selling for $54.50 or more and on larger gallonage heaters priced proportionately.

AUTOMATIC GAS water heater

If a "job-o-meter" attached to your water heater recorded the times hot water worked for you during a month, you'd be amazed at the result. Because a water heater leads a busy life in the modern home. ★ Think of the big jobs that hot water makes easier. Washing dishes, pots and pans; speeding up washday by making soap work faster; bathing in tub or shower and scrubbing floors and woodwork are just a few. Then there are the host of little services that are big in convenience at the moment. The quick rinse-outs of hosiery and silken dainties; cleaning up kitchen sink, the wash basins, the tubs, the range and refrigerator are some of these daily demands. ★ Old water heaters just cannot stand up and deliver under this pace of service. They slow down and use more gas just as old automobiles slow down and use more fuel. That's why it pays to trade in an old costly-to-operate water heater. ★ This is the month to Trade in Your Old Water Heater. Right now, for a short time only, your present water heater has a $10 trade-in value on a new Automatic. Easy terms of a few dollars a month will soon pay for it. Don't delay—buy now.
